INDEX.

A

Arnold, Dr., notice of, 182, et seq.

B

Blackie, Professor, review of his works on Education in Scotland, 88.

Bossuet, memoirs of, by Abbé le Dieu, reviewed, 194, et seq.—his birth and early life, 195—effect of his preaching in Paris, 202—his method of composition, 203—his Oraisons funèbres, 205, et seq.—superintends the education of the Dauphin, 209—works composed by him for that purpose, 210, et seq.—his extravagant notions of regal power, 213—his discourse on universal history, 214—his mode of life, 219—his violent opposition to Protestantism, 220—his attack on Quiétisme, 223—his contest with Fénélon, 224—close of his life, 226—his character, 230.

Briggs, Lieut.-Gen., review of India and Europe compared, by, 1.

Brougham, Lord, review of his Speeches on Social and Political Subjects, &c., 443, et seq.—specimens of his eloquence, 447, et seq.

Buckle, H. T., review of his History of Civilization in England, 465, et seq.—his the first English attempt to treat history as a science, 465—scheme and principles of his work, 466—his theory founded on erroneous dogmas, 472, et seq.—he ignores metaphysics, 478—his theory opposed to morality and religion, 481, et seq.—fallacy of his notion that men's actions are influenced mainly by intellectual and not moral causes, 488, et seq.—active life underrated by him, 503, et seq.—immoral tendency of his theory, 507.

C

California, review of works on, 295, et seq.—climate and vegetation of, 298—discovery of gold and its effect, 304—government of, 311—Lynch Law, 316—state of, contrasted with that of Victoria, and reasons for the contrast, 319.

Campbell, Lord, and Sir P. Laurie, correspondence between, 293, note.

Canning, Lord, injustice of Conservatives protesting against a vote of thanks to, 549.

XUM

Clarendon, Earl of, notice of his speech on the recent communications with the French Government, 556, et seq.

Conspiracy Bill, brought in by Lord Palmerston, notice of the, 555, et seq.

Currency, progress in opinion on the, from 1819 to 1844, 250, et seq. — Bank Act of 1844, 261 — erroneous notions as to its operation, 262 — discount banking, 263, et seq. — distinction between circulation and deposits, 265 — advantages of discount banking, 267 — evils attending it, 269 — evils of allowing interest on deposits, 271 — difference between crisis caused by undue advances from deposits and that caused by over-issue of notes, 272 — Act of 1844 facilitates correction of former crisis, 277 — errors of writers on monetary statistics, 282 — impolicy of engrafting on Act of 1844 a discretionary relaxing power, 282, et seq. — the panic in America, 288.

D

Derby, Lord, The second Ministry of, 540, et seq.

Disraeli, Mr., notice of his speech on the causes of the revolt in India, 545 — his opinion on the Bank Act of 1844, 552 — notice of his speech in opposition to the India Bill of Lord Palmerston, 553 — strictures on the India Bill brought in by him, 576.

E

Eastern Church, review of works relating to the, 322, et seq. — characteristics of it, 326 — history of its development, 328 — how it became naturalised in other countries, 329 — three processes led to its formation, 330, et seq. — consequences of the separation of the GreekKingdom from the Ottoman Empire, 349 — relations between it and the Reformed Churches of the West, 353.

F

Farnham, Mrs., review of California Indoors and Out, &c., by, 295.

Fénélon, notice of, 223, et seq.

Fox, C. J., Memorials and Correspondence of, edited by Lord J. Russell, reviewed, 134.

H

Hawkers' Literature of France, its extent and character, 232.

I

India, review of works on, 1, et seq.—dangers to British Empire in, foretold, 2, et seq.—disproportion between revenue and expenditure a cause of weakness of administration in, 5, et seq. — sources of revenue, 21, et seq.—burdens on the revenue, 26 — necessity of increase in military expenditure, 31—mode for providing for this, 39, et seq. — development of the resources of the country, 39 — education of natives, 40 — admission of Europeans, ibid.— reform of legal system, 43—public works, ibid.—fortifications, 44—future government of India, 45, et seq.

India Bill of Lord Palmerston, notice of the, 575—strictures on that of Mr. Disraeli, 576.

Inglis, Dr., review of his Inaugural Discourse to the Graduates of King's College, Aberdeen, &c., 88.

K

Kingsley, Mr., notices of his works, 189, et seq.
Kirkpatrick, E., review of The historically received Conception of the University, &c., by, 88.

L

Latin Christianity, The History of, by Dean Milman, reviewed, 51.
Laurie, Sir P. and Lord Campbell, correspondence between, 293, note.
Lawrence, Sir H., notice of, 531, et seq.
Lucknow, Narrative of the Siege of, by Mr. Rees, 513.

M

M'Culloch, review of his collection of The Tracts, &c. on Metallic and Paper Currency, of Lord Overstone, 248.
Milman, Dean, review of his History of Latin Christianity, &c., 51.
Mouravieff, A. N., review of his History of the Church of Russia, 322.

N

Neale, Rev. J. M., review of his History of the Holy Eastern Church, 322.
Nisard, C., review of his Histoire des Livres Populaires, ou de la Littérature du Colportage, &c., 232.

O

Oude, review of General Sleeman's Journey through Oude, 513—state of, prior to its annexation, 514–23 — necessity for this, 523 — errors committed by the Government, 523—state of, when Sir H. Lawrence became the resident, 531 — reasons for not abandoning it, 533—future policy, 539.
Overstone, Lord, review of his Tracts, &c. on Metallic and Paper Currency, 248.

P

Palmer, W., review of Dissertations on Subjects relating to the 'Orthodox' or 'Eastern Catholic' Communion by, 322.
Palmerston, Lord, sketch of events during his tenure of office, 541, et seq.
Patmore, Coventry, review of The Angel in the House, by, 121.
Poe, E. A., The works and a memoir, &c. of reviewed, 419—his character and life, 419–26 — his prose works, 426 — his poems, 438.
Public Schools, influence of, 176, et seq.

R

Railways, present state of, in Great Britain, 398, et seq. — capital invested in, 399 — magnitude of works, ibid. — benefits conferred by, 400 — interest on capital, 404 — legislation as to, 405 — duty on passengers, 409 — rating of, ibid. — carriage of parcels by the

XUM

Post Office on, 410—Lord Campbell's Act, 411 — mismanagement of, 412 — remuneration to directors, 417 — audit, 418.
Rees, Mr., review of his Narrative of the Siege of Lucknow, 513.
Russell, Lord J., Memorials and Correspondence of C. J. Fox, vol. iv. edited by, 134.

S

Scottish University Reform, 88, et seq. — origin of the reform movement, 88–92 — defects in the present system, 92, et seq. — entrance examination to universities requisite, 95 — ground of opposition, 96 — modification of the Faculty of Arts proposed, 99–109 — reorganisation of the Professional Faculties, 199.
Seyd, E., review of his California and its Resources, 295.
Sleeman, General Sir W. H., review of his Journey through Oude, &c., 513.
Smiles, S., review of his Life of George Stephenson, 396.
Soulè, Gihon and Nisbet, review of their work, The Annals of San Francisco, 295.
Stephenson, George, the Life of, by S. Smiles, reviewed, 396.
Thiers, M., review of his Histoire du Consulat et de l'Empire, 359 — his inaccuracies, 360, et seq. — his inaccurate account of the battle of Copenhagen, in 1801, 370 — of Nelson's attack on Boulogne, 372 — of the battle of Trafalgar, ibid.—of the causes of the renewal of war in 1806, 376 — of events during the Peninsular War, 379, et seq. — of the battle of Barossa, 384 — of the battle of Busaco, 385 — of the campaign of 1812, 387 — of the battle of Salamanca, 389 — of the object of the march on Madrid, 391 — of the Vittoria campaign, 393.

T

Tom Brown's Schooldays, review of, 172.

V

Voigt, Dr., review of his Mittheilungen über das Unterrichtswesen Englands und Schottlands, 88.

END OF VOL. CVII.

LONDON:
PRINTED BY SPOTTISWOODE AND CO.
NEW-STREET SQUARE.

XUM